GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER AGAIN: Covid-19 shut down our community's social gatherings for two years. The Pastoral Council will be discerning ways to reestablish more social contact among our members, and how to build a deeper sense and experience of Christian community among us. Please share your ideas. There are Suggestion Boxes at the back the churches and/or email sttheresa@eastlink.ca with subject line: To Pastoral Council.

PASTORAL COUNCIL'S FOOD FOR THOUGHT: "God, the Father, has willed that all should constitute one family and treat one another in a spirit of brotherhood/sisterhood."

In Holy Trinity Pastoral Unit, we can and should foster both a sense of belonging and a spirit of brotherhood/sisterhood in our relationships with each other.

One who governs their passions is master of their world. We must either command them or be enslaved by them.
~~St Dominic

The limitless loving devotion to God, and gift God makes of himself to you, are the highest elevation of which the heart is capable; it is the highest degree of prayer. The souls that have reached this point are truly the heart of the Church.
~~St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross

We cannot have full knowledge all at once. We must start by believing. Then, afterwards, we may be led on to master the evidence for ourselves.
~~St. Thomas Aquinas

Imitation is not a literal mimicking of Christ; rather it means becoming the image of the beloved, an image disclosed through transformation. This means we are to become vessels of God's compassionate love for others.

~~St. Clare

We must invoke the help of the Holy Spirit and that of our good angel, and then remain still in God's presence, full of faith that he is more in us than we are in ourselves.

~~St. Jane Frances de Chantal

St. Paul on
THE HOLY EUCHARIST

For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night that he was betrayed took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way also the chalice, after supper, saying, "This chalice is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the chalice, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of profaning the body and blood of the Lord. Let a man examine himself, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself.
